What's fluttering this month

“Notes from Lisa”

Greetings Everyone:

It is always a blessing to share my Joy and Love with you all every month. Each month I allow the Holy Spirit to flow through, for you all. My path with God has been quite a Journey, it is about walking through the darkness to the light. Each time I am willing to enter the darkness (fear, shame, guilt and unworthiness) I discover that there is a gift for me on the other side. Just the faith of a mustard seed, a tiny willingness to see what is not. Fear and Guilt keep us bound, to the past. They keep us from going forward to the Love of God. To discover what God wills for us, God's will for us is Perfect Happiness. I must continue to be willing to allow Christ to lead me and Trust that the darkness will fade. Each moment becomes a lesson; each person I meet teaches me who I am. If I choose to see anything, but Truth in my brother, I choose death, instead of life. Who we are is changeless, who we are, is Pure Love. We were created in God's Image, many differences separate us on the surface, but what God created never changes. It abides in all of us. When we discover who we really are, we can look at our brother and see that it is a reflection of ourselves. We pretend to be many different things, Mother's, wives, teachers, doctors, and yes even nurses. We are adjusting to roles that hide our true self. Who are we really? The body fades and dies, we make it our home and it never ever satisfies our longing, we try and try to find a role that fits. As nurses we have a desire to heal, each one of us has a desire to heal. We were drawn to this profession with a desire. This desire does come from ourselves. This is our desire as children of God. We remember that healing is our goal. Somehow, someway, we have never forgotten our true nature. We were created to heal each other. We were created to Love one another, and this is our natural state. We have been taught by the world how to heal. We are very obedient. We give medicines, do tx's follow the routine of the world. But really are we healing? This is the question that I dared to ask. I saw how Band-Aids and pills just were not satisfying my desire to heal. I never really thought I healed anyone. I could pretend I was, but as I walked off the wing at the end of the day I saw that these patients and residents longed for something greater than pills and Band-Aids. These patients are telling us what they want and I was unable to give it to them, for fear of rejection from the System. I had eight hours to do all the tasks that the world told me was most important, and God forbid if I got off routine. I remember leaving the wing for the last time, trusting that God would lead me to where I could be used to be Truly Helpful. I am a healer, I always knew that. As a little girl, I dreamed of healing. I would beg my mother for my little doctor kit and practice of my brother's and sister's. Well today I can truly say, I am a Nurse. I am a Nurse of the Soul. This is my true Nature, healing with Love. God's Love heals all wounds. All pain is from not knowing who we really are. We are God's Holy Children; he has created us in His Image. We are Love, we are Light, we are Joy, and we are everything to Him. We are searching constantly for someone or somebody to acknowledge who we really are. Who we really are, is not found in a college, not found in a relationship, not found in friends, not in things, not found in our children, all these things constantly change. We loose cars, we loose relationships, we loose careers. We loose all things of the world in the end. What we can never lose is Love. Love is Eternal. It is not of this world but from our Father above. Love was created by Him. We seek to find love outside ourselves, to fill that hole, which will be forever empty. We just redirect our search to some other thing to join with our love. Love abides in each and every one of us. No one has more or less. We have the same. No one was created better or worse. We were created the same. The masks that we wear are different indeed. They hide who we really are. What if God's laws were just extended for an instant? Love your brother as yourself. What do we really have to loose? Can our love be taken? Love abides forever within us. Sharing God's Love is the Greatest Healer of this Journey. Love Heals. We extend it and immediately, we feel His Presence. Each one of us is searching for someone to remind them who they really are. Fear, shame and guilt, keep us from extending this great and glorious gift. The gift is for you. It is your inheritance as a Child of God. If we allow the veil of fear and shame and unworthiness to be given to the Holy Spirit for an instant, we shall see our Brother, and we shall see ourselves. He is you. We are the same. He is reflecting God's Love. See through the veil of the ego and you will not be able to look. Lift this veil, oh Holy child. Forgiveness offers you this gift. It is Free. You don't need to buy it, search for it, earn it; Love is freely given to those who seek Truth. But we must ask ourselves, what are we really seeking? To hide, to pretend, to continue to play the game wear another mask. Or are willing to Accept God's Love and receive Everything. Call off the Search. You are Home. You are the Answer. Be still for just an instant and listen and feel your Father's Love. It is a treasure chest waiting to be open. Oohhhhh, Yippeeee, Salvation! Amazing Grace. Our Father waits for you. You have nothing to loose. It has been the greatest journey since I found this out. I rest in God and I will continue to share this Good News with you. For who has the ears to hear, they shall hear. Hear the Son of God. Share your Love and feel God's presence. It is that simple. See the Love of God Everywhere, because it is Everywhere.

I love you all,
Lisa

—Retrospection and Introspection

Our reliance upon material things must be transferred to a perception of and dependence on spiritual things.

"There is but one way of doing good, and that is to do it! There is but one way of being good, and that is to be good."

"Love inspires, illumines, designates, and leads the way."

"Seeking is not sufficient. It is striving that enables us to enter."

"Moral courage is requisite to meet the wrong and to proclaim the right."

*"For I was hungry and you gave me
food,
I was thirsty and you gave me drink,
I was a Stranger and you Welcomed
me,
'I was naked and you clothed me,
I was sick and you visited me,
I was in prison and you came to me.'
"Truly, I say to you,
as you did it to
one of the least of these,
my brethren,
you did it to me.*

Matthew 25

*Ask, and it will be given you;
Seek, and you will find;
Knock, and it will be opened to you.*
